SECTION 2. Issue Period: Cancellation Period. This contract is made for the next issue of each directory into which advertising is sold. Each issue of a Directory is expected to have a normal issue period of twelve months ("Issue Period"). The Company reserves the right to discontinue any issue or to increase or decrease the duration of any Issue Period. The advertiser may revise or cancel any advertisement only by giving the representative written notice which must be received no later than the relevant directory close date. Upon request, the company will inform the advertiser of this date.

SECTION 3. Acceptance or Rejection of Contract: Right to Refuse or Restrict Publication. The Company reserves the right to accept or reject this contract with respect to any Advertisement or restrict any Advertisement for publication in a directory at any time for any reason. This contract will be binding on the Company with respect to any Advertisement only when that Advertisement is actually published.

SECTION 4. Payment for Advertisers: Acceleration. The annual rate for Advertisements published by the Company will be those printed or updated by the Representative on the face of this contract. Amounts owed for Advertisements will be billed at 50% due upon signature of this contract and 50% due upon publication, or as agreed with client. Amounts due will be billed in total within thirty (30) days of publication and are payable when the bill is rendered. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company may elect to require full or partial payment prior to publication of any Advertisement. If an Advertiser fails to pay any bill within thirty (30) days of the date of such bill, at the Company's election, the Advertiser will be subject to a late payment charge of up to 5% per month, or such lesser amount as permitted by applicable law, on all amounts outstanding after the date indicated on the bill. Should it be necessary to place the Advertiser's account for collection, the Advertiser agrees to pay any and all collection costs and attorneys' fees necessary for such collection.

SECTION 5. No Approval or Endorsement. The publication of an Advertisement does not constitute approval or endorsement by the Company of any product or service, and the Advertiser agrees not to make any representation to the contrary. The Advertiser agrees that publication of an Advertisement does not restrict the right of the Company to publish advertisements of any other person in any Directory.

SECTION 6. Advertising Copy: Review of Proofs. The Advertiser will furnish all advertising material ("Advertising Copy") to the Company prior to deadlines established by the Company. The Company reserves the right to approve the Advertising Copy with respect to content, form, size, wording, illustration, typography and otherwise. *On request, the company will attempt to permit the advertiser to review proofs of advertising copy for a new display advertisement, but the advertiser will be required to make full payment for a published advertisement and meet all its other obligations even if the company fails to permit such review. In no event shall the company's or any affiliate's liability to the advertiser for all claims arising out of or resulting from any such error or omission exceed the total or total or punitive damages of any nature. The foregoing provisions shall be the advertiser's exclusive remedy against the company and any affiliate for any such error or omission.
